

Medical School Interviews All You Need to Know the Knowledge By Dr. Mona Kooner

This book provides information on the important subjects that medical applicants are asked at interviews with chapters on medical ethics the NHS medical history medicine today and new developments in medicine: There are also sections on interview skills and the types of interviews including the new Mini Medical Interviews format Oxbridge graduate interviews and those for international students. 155 commonly asked questions are included to ensure that you are thoroughly prepared. The book leaves you with an understanding of what the interviewers are looking for and the knowledge to provide thoughtful impressive answers, It is also an enjoyable read! Medical School Interviews All You Need to Know the Knowledge.